

		Dust and Noise pose a moderate impact to the environment	c. Provide trash can in the project site d. Monitor litters of waste within the project site a. Limit works at daytime b. Decelerate trucks near busy intersections and narrow streets c. Proper supervision of filling and construction works	Implement ation phase Implement ation phase
2. Grievance during construction		Complaints and Issues can hamper the implementation of the project.	Establish Grievance Redress Mechanism	Implementation Phase	Grievance & Redress Mechanism	PPMIU
3. Possible loss of economic trees during construction.		A number of fruit bearing and forest trees will be cut prior and during construction.	The Local Government Unit (LGU) will be responsible for the cutting of trees and the lumber will be turned-over to the owner. A notarized waiver of quit claim was signed by the owner of the affected trees. A Cutting Tree Permit was issued by the CENRO with all the requirements for compliance included.	Prior, during and after construction	Notarized waiver of quite claim signed by the owner trees. Cutting Tree Permit	MLGU/PLGU
Construction Phase
1.Domestic wastes		The wastes generated by construction workers will have a moderate impact to the nearby environment	a. Segregation at source and regular disposal of residuals to the city dumpsite.	Construction phase	By contract	PEO